ooo

The object of the game is to obtain a diploma which states that we have completed our requirements, grown as individuals, and experienced the daily vissisitudes which come within the game's play. Starting from "GO," the players move forward and try to acquire knowledge, realize their interdependence with each other, and develop an understanding of themselves.

Anne,

Well, this is the end of another year & we're still friends, which is a miracle with all we've gone through. Always remember the good times we had in 8th grade with Gemma, Sylvia, Lisa, Kathy, and Eileen and all the others we picked up along the way. Remember Green acres, Gemma's house, before & after school, Cindy & Lisa running away, teenage [illegible], potheads, downtown (pizza), Comeade (pizza), pizza, Dennis, losing Schulman's respect, Acme, cutting, "Reunited", Adam's, Dan & Gemma, kicked out of History, looking out of the window, nearly getting raped, and splitting up. Yeah, we've been through a lot and by all the people I know you've always been there when I needed to talk (most of the time). You've heard everything I've had to say over & over again. You never got sick of hearing about Jennifer & I can't express all I can say is thank you which really doesn't seem to say all that much but I hope we can still be friends over the years & I really think we will. Just make sure not to change because I like you just the way you are (← Billy Joel)

P.S.

Never forget the millions of things

Love,

Connie

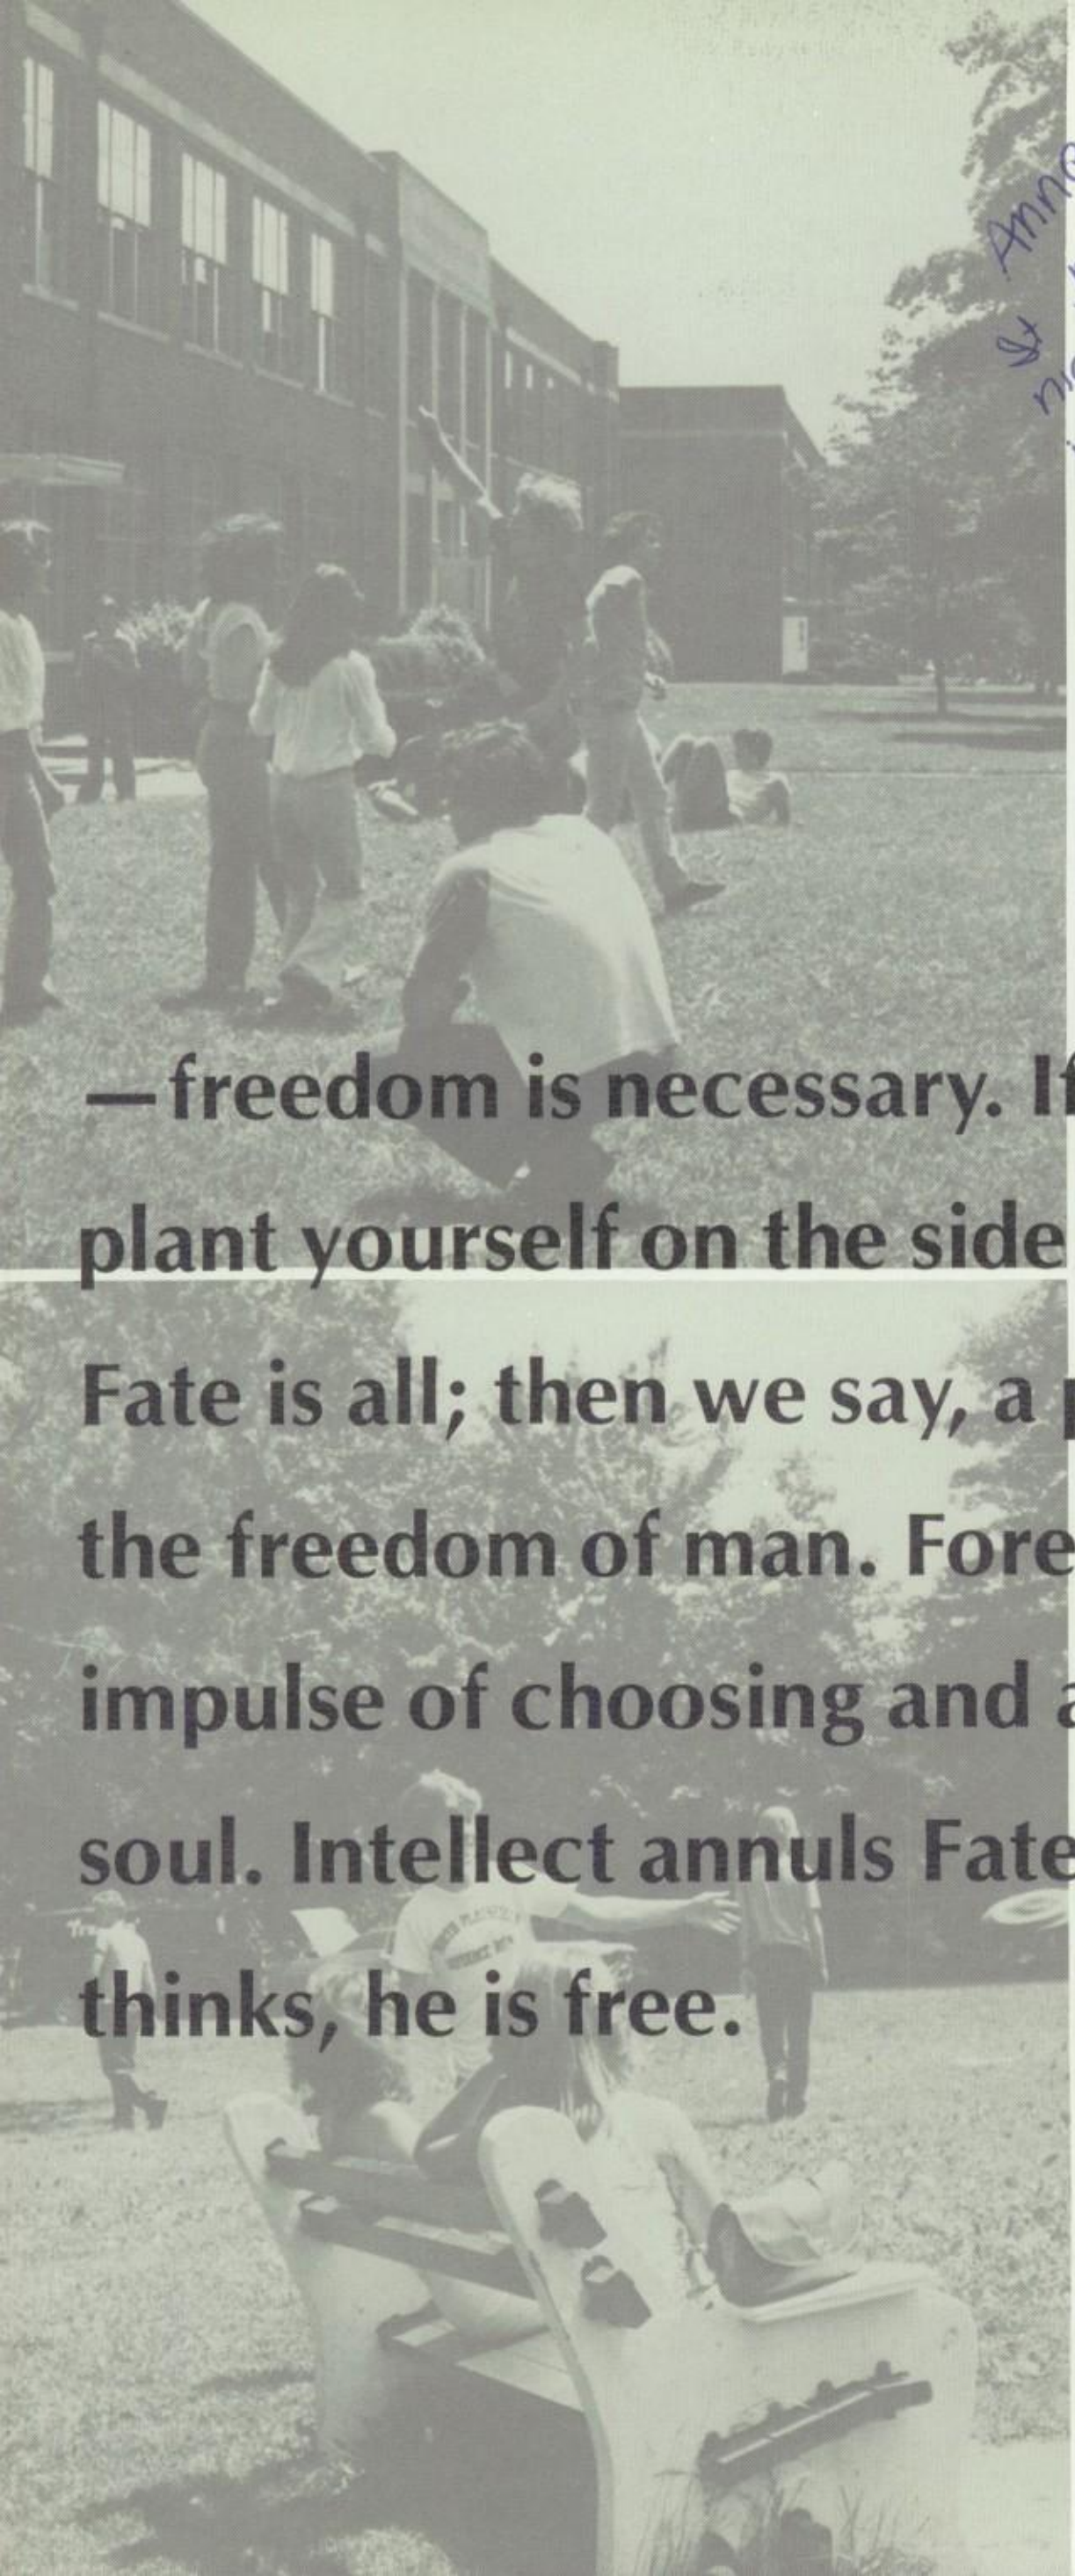
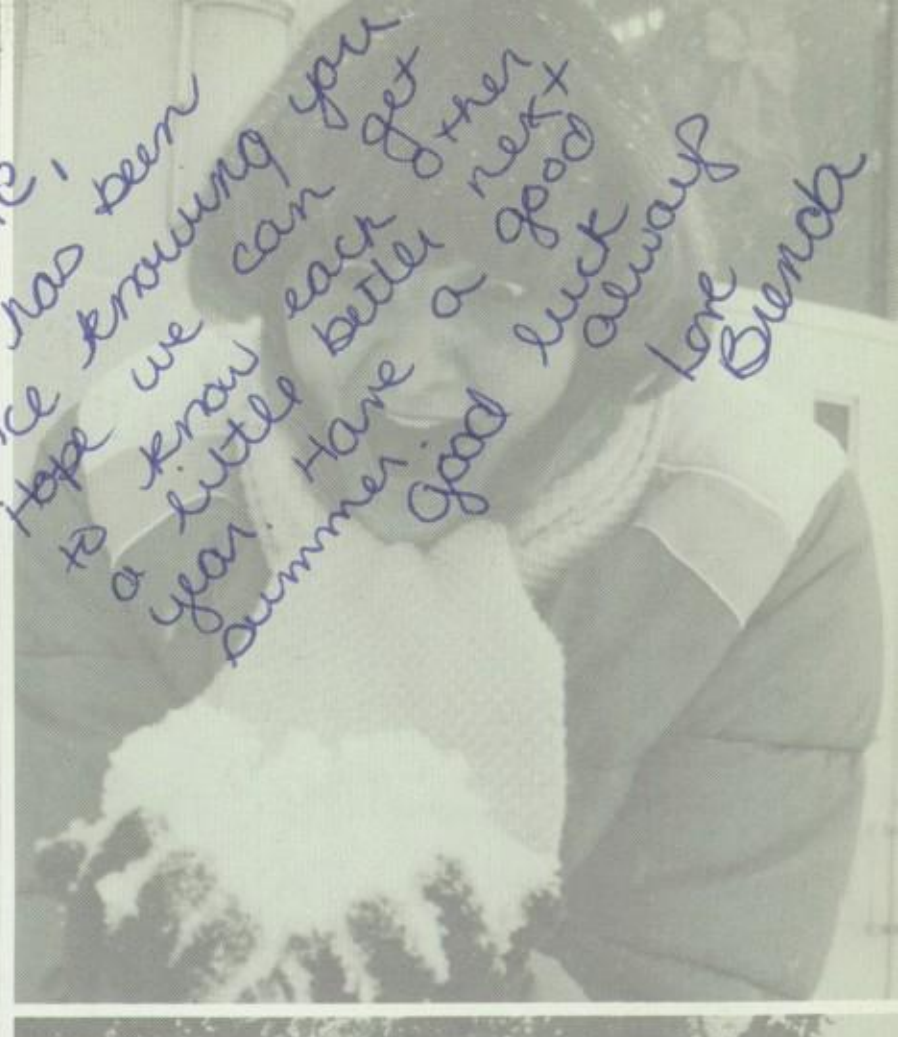
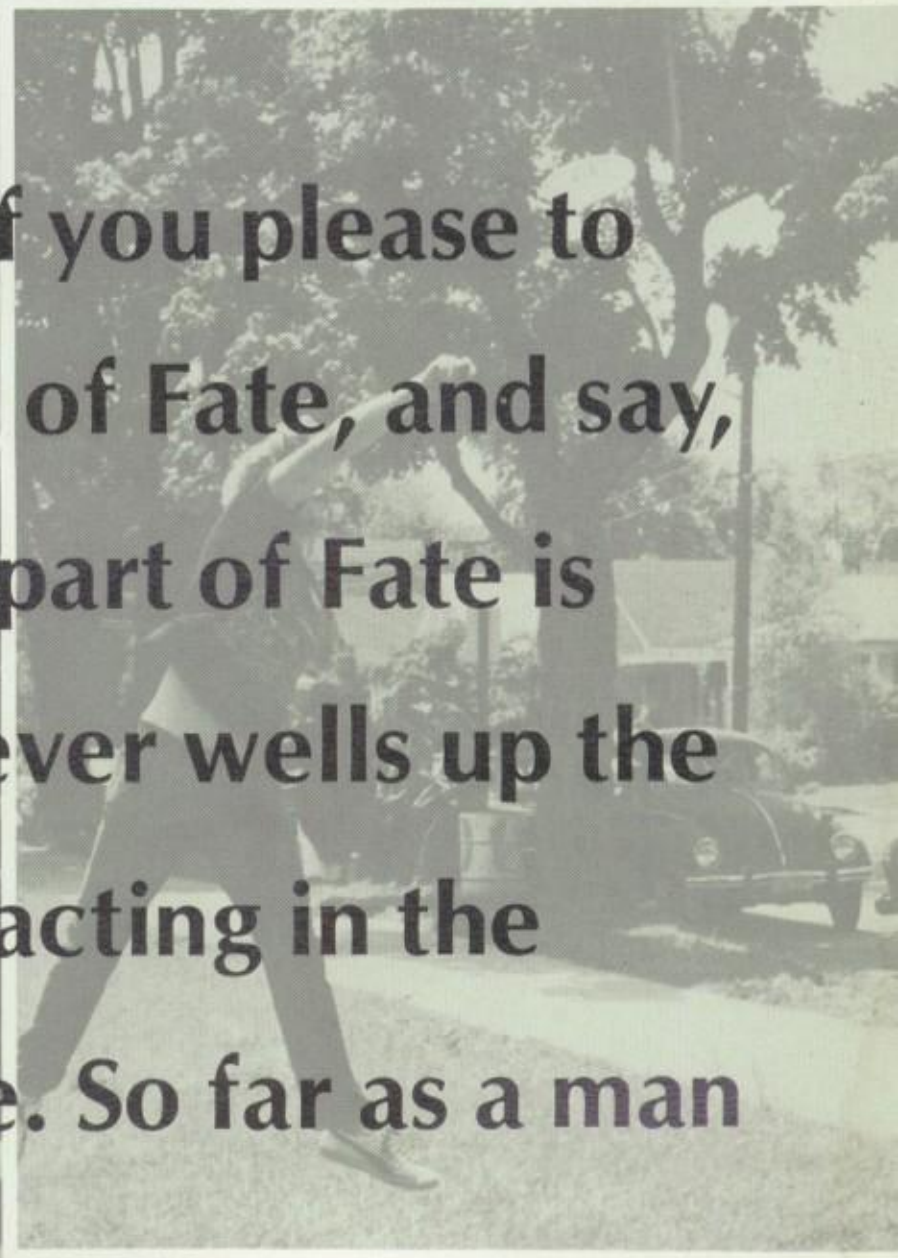
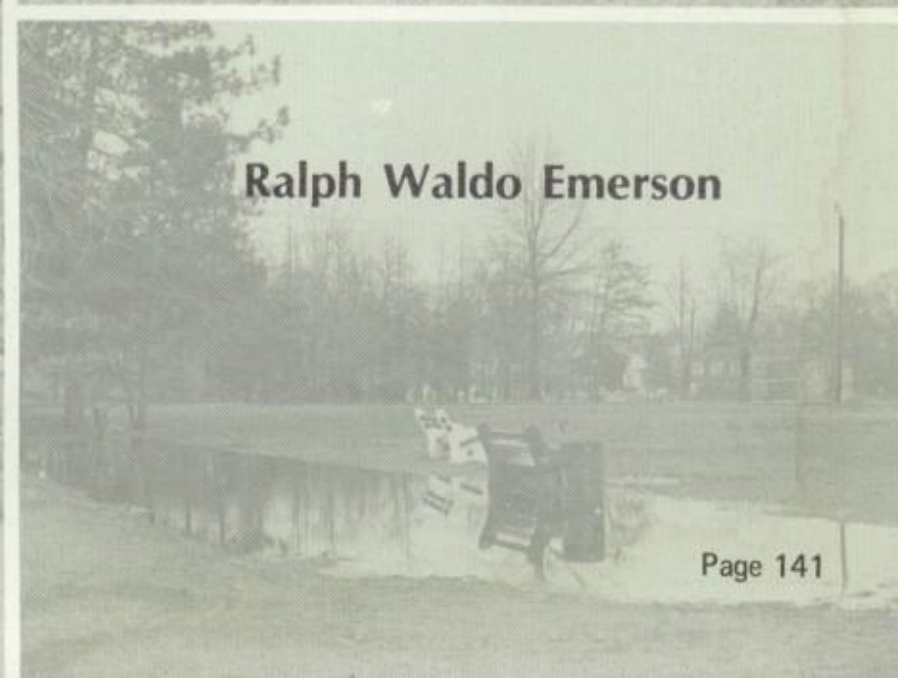
. . . the lightning which explodes and fashions planets, maker of planets and suns, is in him. On one side elemental order, sandstone and granite, rock-ledges, peat-bog, forest, sea and shore; and on the other part thought, the spirit which composes and decomposes nature—









—freedom is necessary. If you please to plant yourself on the side of Fate, and say, Fate is all; then we say, a part of Fate is the freedom of man. Forever wells up the impulse of choosing and acting in the soul. Intellect annuls Fate. So far as a man thinks, he is free.

CIRCLE GAME

Yesterday a child came out to wander, caught a dragon fly inside a jar, fearful when the sky was full of thunder, and tearful at the falling of a star.

And the seasons go round and round and the painted ponies go up and down we're captured on a carousel of time we can't return, we can only look around from where we came and go round and round the circle game

Then the child moved ten times round the seasons skated over ten clear frozen streams words like "When you're older" must appease him, and promises of someday make his dreams.

Sixteen springs and sixteen summers gone now, cartwheels turn to carwheels through the town, they tell him take your time it won't be long now, till you drag your feet to slow the circles down.

So the years slip by and now the boy is thirty, though his dreams have lost some grandeur coming true, there will be new dreams, maybe better dreams, but plenty, before the last revolving year is through.

And the seasons go round and round
and the painted ponies go up and down
we're captured on a carousel of time
we can't return, we can only look around
from where we came and go round and round
the circle game.

Special thanks to Ernie for keeping his grin through thick and thin. Also to Richard Chase and all others who contributed to this book and helped it to be less of a headache.
